

1. Rule:

We listen to each other.

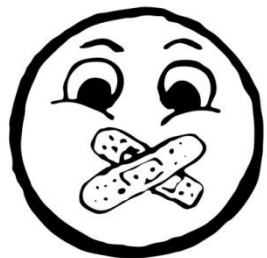

I.e. we allow the others to finish speaking, we put our hands up if we want to say something/ have an idea.

2. Rule:

We don't make fun of others and aren't nasty towards others.

Of course you are allowed to laugh, but you are not allowed to say something hurtful or the like. Neither here nor outside when you talk about the contents!

Secret.

We may hear stories about sad or embarrassing situations from time to time. And everybody has the right to say: "This must not be spread as my story". The story has to be kept secret then, you must not tell others who told you the story!
